

Day camp is a unique and exciting opportunity for girls to have fun, improve skills, make new friends, experience the outdoors, and learn from positive adult role models! To be successful at day camp, it is important to remember the Girl Scout Promise and to live by the Girl Scout Law. All campers and parents are asked to sign the Behavior Agreement for Day Camp.

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,

I agree to follow all camp rules.

I agree to tell the truth in situations that involve conflict.

friendly and helpful,

I agree to get to know other girls by learning their names and understanding that their personalities and values that may be different from my own.

considerate and caring,

I agree to participate fully in the camp experience by leaving my cell phone and all electronics at home. I understand that if I break this agreement and bring these items, Girl Scouts of Oregon and SW Washington is not responsible for these items.

I agree not to pass judgment of others because they are different from me.

I understand that my behavior directly affects the others in my group and I will do my best to be a positive group member.

courageous and strong, and

I agree to let an adult know about any behavior I witness that may be hurtful or harmful to myself or others (examples: bullying, threats, name-calling, leaving the group without permission, etc).

I agree to use coping skills if I become upset with something.

responsible for what I say and do,

I agree to use appropriate language and behavior. Unsafe rowdiness, fighting, sexual harassment, racist remarks, bullying, threatening, inappropriate gestures, or acts of violence or abuse to myself or others is unacceptable.

I agree not to bring alcohol, tobacco, controlled substances, illegal drugs, firearms or weapons to camp.

I agree to take an active part in learning and having fun at camp.

and to respect myself and others,

I agree to respect other campers and volunteers belongings and space. I understand I will ask permission to use other camper's things and I will respect the answer given. I also agree to keep my hands to myself.

If I am having a problem with someone or something, I agree to respectfully talk to that person and/or a volunteer.

I agree to respect wildlife and not cause harm to them.

respect authority,

I agree to respect adults volunteering at camp and to follow their directions.

I agree to remain with my unit at all times unless I have permission from my unit leader to be somewhere else.

I agree to use the buddy system at all times.

use resources wisely,

I agree to respect all property- both man-made and natural resources.

make the world a better place, and

I agree to help other campers and staff to keep camp clean and to "leave no trace."

I agree to have an accepting attitude toward others who have values and cultural experiences different from my own.

be a sister to every Girl Scout.

I agree to be open to ideas other than my own and willing to cooperate for common objectives.

I agree to include all girls in my unit.

I agree to do my best to have fun, try new things, make new friends and enjoy my camp experience in the spirit of Girl Scouting.

I understand that failure to comply may result in being prohibited from participating in specific activities, requiring immediate pickup by a parent/guardian, creating a behavior action plan with the parent/guardian, or not enjoying all of the opportunities day camp has to offer. I understand that there is no refund for missed opportunities or dismissal from day camp due to a violation of this agreement.

Both the camper and parent/guardian have read, understand, and agree to comply with the Behavior Agreement for Day Camp.

Signature of camper _____ Date _____

Signature of parent/guardian _____ Date _____

(Typing your name in the Camper/Parent Signature box denotes a legal signature and that you are accepting the terms on this registration form)